

2. agmatic

Course Information
Course Code	EN393	* Credit Hours	2	* Credits	2
* Course Name	Introduction to Pragmatics
(Course Type)
Target Audience	(English majors-Linguistics track)
(Language of Instruction)	(English)
* School	(School of Foreign Languages)
Prerequisite	(Introduction to English Linguistics)
Instructor			(Course Webpage)
* Description	“ ”
* Description	Introduction to Pragmatics is a mandatory course for English majors with an orientation in Linguistics. This course introduces students to the study of contextualized meaning in linguistics and language use and discusses basic concepts including deixis, presupposition, implicature, speech acts, Relevance theory, neo-Gricean pragmatics and cross-cultural communication. The goal of this course is to enable students to understand the role of context in interpreting language use and analyze and research language use with frameworks and tools offered by Pragmatics.
Course Syllabus

*

(Learning Outcomes)

	2. Develop the ability to conduct pragmatic analysis of actual language use; 3. Develop critical and creative thinking and the ability to conduct preliminary pragmatics research.
* (Class Schedule & Requirements)	<table border="1"> <tr><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>2</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>4</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>4</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>4</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>4</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>6</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>2</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>2</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>2</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> <tr><td></td><td>2</td><td></td><td></td><td></td><td></td></tr> </table>								2						4						4						4						4						6						2						2						2						2
	2
	4
	4
	4
	4
	6
	2
	2
	2
	2
* (Grading)	20% + 30% + 50% Attendance/in-class presentation 20% + assignments 30% + project paper 50%
* (Textbooks & Other Materials)	Birner, B.J. (2013). Introduction to Pragmatics (1 st Ed.). West Sussex, UK: Wiley-Blackwell. ISBN 978-1-4051-7583-8. 2009 . (11) ISBN 9787560081717
More
Notes

1 *

2 300-500